The International Organization for Migration (IOM) is the UN Migration Agency. With 174 member states it is committed to the principle that humane and orderly migration benefits migrants and society. Established in 1951 and now active in over 400 field locations worldwide, IOM works with partners, government and civil society to:

1. Assist in meeting the operational challenges of migration and mobility
2. Advance understanding of migration issues
3. Encourage social and economic development through migration; and
4. Uphold the human dignity and well-being of migrants and mobile populations.

IOM is committed to a diverse and inclusive environment. Internal and External candidates are eligible to apply to this vacancy. For the purpose of the vacancy, internal candidates are considered as first-tier candidates.

IOM's Regional Office for the East and Horn of Africa supports and monitors the following countries: Burundi, Djibouti, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Kenya, Rwanda, Somalia, South Sudan, Tanzania and Uganda. Through a team of specialists, the Regional Office supports the development, implementation, monitoring, reporting and evaluation of projects and initiatives undertaken by country offices and regional programmes.

Context:

The overall Better Migration Management Programme is a regional, multi-year, multi-partner programme co-funded by the EU Trust Fund for Africa and the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) coordinated by the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ). IOM is one of the main implementing partners for the programme along with UNODC, CIVIPOL and the British Council.

This three-year project will be implemented in the following countries – Djibouti, Ethiopia, Kenya, Somalia, South Sudan, and Uganda

The Better Migration Management (BMM) programme aims to improve migration management in the region, and in particular, to address Trafficking in Persons (TiP) and Smuggling of Migrants (SoM) from and within the East and Horn of Africa (EHOA) region. More specifically, the programme is expected to strengthen national and regional migration governance in accordance with the global and regional frameworks; increase national and cross-border cooperation on trafficking and smuggling cases between investigation, prosecution, courts and other state as well as non-state actors in accordance with international standards; and improve the prevention of trafficking in persons and protection of vulnerable migrants at local, national and regional level ensuring appropriate assistance and support for victims of trafficking in human beings, taking into accounts the gender specificity of the phenomenon and the particular vulnerability of women and children.

Under the overall supervision of the Senior Regional Programme Manager (BMM) and direct supervision of the Deputy Regional Programme Manager (BMM), IOM seeks a proactive individual to provide technical support in the implementation of the BMM programme through, assisting in the implementation, monitoring of and reporting on activities under the policy component of the BMM programme.

Core Functions / Responsibilities:

In particular he/she will:

1. Assist in the implementation and monitoring of the activities under the BMM programme.
2. Assist in the following up and organizing policy related activities under component one of the BMM workplans.
3. Retrieve, compile, summarize, and present information/data from workshops, training and meetings pertaining to BMM activities.
4. Draft status reports, identifying shortfalls in delivery and bringing them to the attention of the supervisor.
5. Draft correspondence, reports, briefing notes, graphics, statistical tables, presentations and other forms of documentation.
6. Support in organizing meetings, workshops and training sessions mainly under the component one of the BMM programme.
7. Contribute to the writing of the annual and final narrative report by providing information in a timely manner.
8. Undertake programme related duty travels as directed by supervisor
9. Perform other related duties as assigned.
